

Who are the Friends of Collier-Seminole?

The Friends of Collier-Seminole State Park is a volunteer non-profit, Citizen Support Organization (C.S.O.). Section 258.015 of Florida Statutes, states the purpose of a C.S.O. is to "operate for the direct or indirect benefit of the state park system or individual units of the state park system." It is the goal of the C.S.O. to support the Florida Park Service mission:

"To provide resource-based recreation while preserving, interpreting, and restoring natural and cultural resources."
